Foreword

As the Indians of Old left records in their legends, so we would leave a record of our victories and defeats, our work and play, our dreams and aspirations, that it may stand as a monument to our memory and tend toward the progress and glory of our school.

School Song

It's Hillsboro High School,
It's Hillsboro High School,
The pride of every student here,
Come on ye old grads,
Join with us young lads,
It's Hillsboro High School now we cheer

Rah! Rah! Rah!

Now is the time boys to make a big noise
No Matter what the people say,

'Cause there's none to fear the gang's all here,

So hail to Hillsboro High School,

Hail!

W Last Will and Testament

We, the Seniors of 1953, making all former wills null and void, do hereby make this last will and testament.

I, Jerry Samuel Starks, will to Mr. Taylor my ability to chew tobacco, since he doesn't chew.

I, Patty Burns, will to Janice LaRue the ability to "Grow up and stop sucking her thumb." And a car so she wont have to borrow J.R.'s Ford.

I, Exa Kellison, do hereby will to Ruth Moore my ability to go with one boy at a time.

I, Betty Ann Scott, will Berline Shue a car so she won't have to walk when going to see Venton Hill.

I, Jerry Starks, will to Carol Shue my ability to get along with people.

I, Phyllis Kershner, will my pep to Mr. Taylor.

I, Louise Copenhaver, will to Dot Cloonan my present office period hoping she will be as efficient as I am.

I, Norma Clutter, will my build to Thelma Pyles so that she can be a bigger and better basketball player.

I, Eveline Rhodes, will to Betty McComb, Mary Dolan and Gloria Sharpa chain, that they will always be linked together.

I, Ray Kramer, will to Bobby Barrett and Eddie Hogsett a strong box to keep their cigarettes in during football season.

I, Wallace Cochran, will to Curtia Dever my ability to be a Bootlegger and get by with it.

I, Austin Walker, do hereby will to Coach Taylor, my luck for the best football team in the conference next season.

I, Austin Walker, do hereby will to the principal and faculty members of Hillsboro High School my appreciation for their service and advice which has helped to put me on the road to success where I stand today.

I, Grace Starks, will to Janice LaRue all the boys from Frankford.

I, Grace Starks, will to Clarice Rose some of my speed to play basketball.

I, Thelma Hill, will to the Junior Girls my ability to be a sport while playing basketball.

We, Louise Copenhaver and Phyllis Kershner, will to Janice LaRue and Carol Lee Shue our ability to be a sport in love and war.

We, Phyllis Kershner, Exa Kellison and Grace Starks, will to Dotty Cloonan, Carol Shue, and Janice LaRue the only typing eraser that we have with the hope that they get as much use out of it as we did.

Class History

Four long years ago in September 1949, there came to the great temple of learning, commonly called Hillsboro High School, thirty-six bright pupils who felt that they would be valuable additions to this school. To their disappointment this opinion was not shared by the upper classmen. During the first few days our class endured with a grin the torments and rough words of our superiors; but soon we were able to hold our heads quite as high as anyone else.

We elected Ray Kramer as President, Eugene Brown as Vice President, and Charlotte Kershner as Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Jefferies was our sponsor.

When we entered school our Sophomore year, Gentellene Sharp, Macel Stanley, Leo Bonnell, and Basil Pyles weren't with us, but we were glad to see a new student, Naomi Rudd.

Our class officers for our Sophomore year were Ray Kramer, President; Phyllis Kershner, Vice President; and Jerry Starks, Secretary-Treasurer. Our sponsor was Mrs. Ida Pritchard.

After a three months vacation we entered the doors of Hillsboro High School as Juniors. We found we had lost several of our class mates. Betty Beard decided to attend school in North Carolina, and Marilyn Hamrick moved to Lewisburg. Agnes Carpenter became Mrs. Merritt Galford, Charlotte Kershner became Mrs. Fitzhugh Perry, and Sylvia McClure attended school for awhile, but quit to get married. Andrew Kinnison and Roy Dean decided to help their fathers.

Our class officers were Thelma Hill, President; Harry McCoy, Vice President; and Norma Lee Clutter, Secretary-Treasurer. Our sponsor was Mr. Jefferies whom we still have.

Our class rings arrived November 15, 1951.

Our Class play was "The Adorable Imp" and was given on April 3. Mrs. Hayes directed it.

On May 21, we gave the Junior-Senior Banquet. The Sophomore Home Economics girls served. After the banquet we went to the gymnasium for the dance.

During the summer two of our faithful members deserted the ranks; LeRoy Rose and Harry McCoy decided to serve their country so they joined the Air Force. Robert Taylor and Bernice Underwood moved to Renick and are attending school there. Naomi Rudd failed to come back.

During our Senior year Jean Pritt and Anvibelle Kramer quit school during the first semester. Vera Sue Vaughan thought it would be nicer to be Mrs. Fred Sharp, Jr., than to graduate with the Senior class.

If all members of the class pass their work, the following students will graduate as Seniors of 1953: Donald Barcroft, Eugene Brown, Louise Copenhaver, Norma Lee Clutter, Wallace Cochran, Robert Dilley, Thelma Hill, Exa Kellison, Phyllis Kershner, Harlan Kinnison, Ray Kramer, Kenneth May, Bobby Ray, Eveline Rhodes, Betty Ann Scott, Grace Starks, Jerry Starks, and Austin Walker.

Class Prophecy

Norma Lee and I just arrived back in the States, returning from our trip to the Moon. On our trip to the Moon we visited Harlen Kinnison, who at that time was a traveling salesman for "Whatchamacallit I-Haveit Company." Harlen asked us to check and see what the Seniors of 1953 were doing.

We stopped at the Greenbrier and to our surprise it was owned and operated by Eveline Rhodes. We found out from Eveline that Thelma Hill was a candidate for the first Lady President of the United States. She was running on the "I Think I Can" ticket.

We drove to Hillsboro the next day. There we found Ray Kramer who was still electioneering for the defeated candidate of 1952. He just doesn't know when to give up.

Betty Ann Scott invited us in for tea. Betty told us that Phyllis Kershner was competing for the title of "World's Best Cheerleader", and Grace Starks had donated a hospital for Hillsboro when she found a gold mine. Also, that Robert Dilley had married Exa Kellison and they had a department store and hotel in Marlinton. Robert and Exa were well on their way to making their third million.

We ventured to Beard; there we learned that Louise Copenhaver had finally captured Kenneth May and that night they were to be married.

At the Hillsboro Hospital we found Austin Walker, the greatest brain surgeon of the World. From Austin we learned that Bobby Ray was a professor at W. V. U.

Outside on the street we heard a circus parade; we ran to watch it. The two clowns leading the parade were very familiar. We looked at them again, and instantly we recognized them as being Eugene Brown and Jerry Starks. We always knew that they would amount to something some day.

We decided to look in at the new space ships. "Honest Donald" the Space Ship Dealer, was none other than Donald Barcroft. Donald told us to go and see Wallace Cochran.

We went to see Wallace and here we found that Wallace was the friendly mortician of Hillsboro. Wallace told us that he would be "the last friend to ever let us down."

Norma Lee and I, after seeing or hearing about all of our old chums, got back in our space ship and sailed off into the wild blue yonder.

SENIORS

The friendliest boy you can see around
Can be identified as Eugene Brown.
He really likes to dirt with the girls.
He might enjoy giving them a few whips.

Patty Burns is a freckled little lass.
She's Vice President of the Sr. class.
She plans on nursing or maybe singing.
We can't tell what the future's bringing.

Norma Lee Clutter is secretary, it seems.
A blond fellow in blue dwells in her dreams.
She plans to be an X-Ray technician,
But being a surgeon is another ambition.

But if he left for China, we'd be in a fix.
He keeps us all in a clamor and mix.
What he's up to next, we'll never figure out.
Allace Cochran is really a gad-about.

Grace Starks is a cute little daisy
That pretty blond hair drives the guys crazy.
She's got lots of get up and fire.
That ambition of hers we really admire.

Ken Kennison is Romeo of the class,
What he's up to next, we'll never figure out.
Outstanding trait is driving his inclination.
Outstanding trait is driving his inclination.
Outstanding trait is driving his inclination.
Outstanding trait is driving his inclination.

Jerry Starks is the class comedian,
He's always at a happy medium.
In Math he's really intelligent,
And in a football suit he's elegant.

Phyllis Kershner keeps the boys in a drool,
She's one of the Cheerleaders for the school.
She has many admirers it seems,
One special fellow hails from the Marines.

MEMORIES

Betty Ann Scott is quiet and shy.
 But when she's all by her lonesome side
 She'll be dancing a handsome waltz
 Some day we'll all be dancing waltzes
 Because she's probably hiding
 Because she's strong and full of might
 Who is strong and full of might

Robert Walker is small and shy.
 Other boys can be compared with him
 But when he's all by his lonesome side
 He'll be dancing a handsome waltz

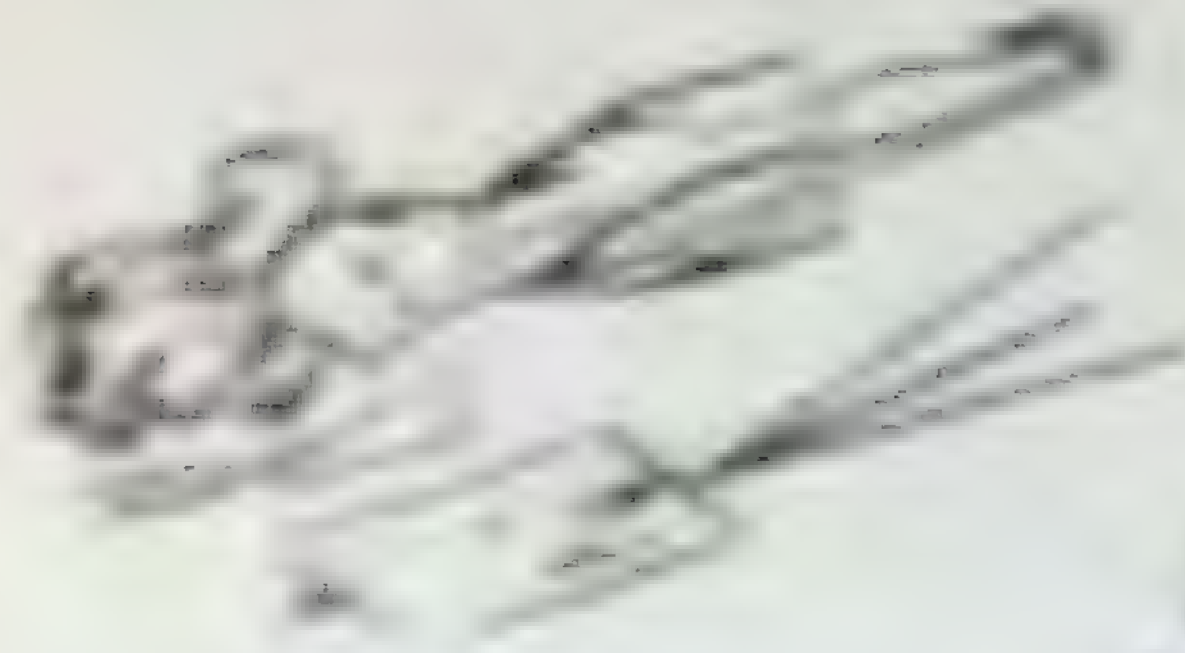

Donald Bartruff is a freckled lad.
 If you've ever seen him you'll be glad
 In the football games he makes every man
 For a full yard dash, or just a yard

Grace Kellison is small and sweet.
 To look at her is quite a treat.
 She once wore her hair in a braid
 But now she's improving fast

Ray Kramer pretends to be reserved and shy.
 But kids, get the expression when a gal goes by
 He's a manager for our football team.
 When he's needed in a hurry he's on the team

Freddie Blum is the star of the class.
 In games she's an all round star.
 Drives a flaming car's a star.
 She has got to have the eye of those making

Thelma Hill is the brain of the class.
 She's got a brain that's as big as a box.
 She's got a brain that's as big as a box.
 She's got a brain that's as big as a box

Austin Walker is a handsome guy with curly hair.
 Where you see a swarm of girls, he's usually there.
 He never gets in a hurry on any condition.
 But he's probably loaded with high ambition

Louise Copenhaver is cute and pert.
 Her heart can be found at Ronceverte.
 She's happy and friendly all the while.
 She's always ready with a lovely smile

One of the small boys is Bobby Ray.
 When you see him, he's always gay.
 He makes good grades and does gay.
 Every one knows he is as big

W Last Will and Testament

I, the Seniors of 1953, making all former wills null and void, do hereby make this last will and testament.

I, Jerry Samuel Starks, will to Mr. Taylor my ability to chew tobacco, since he doesn't chew.

I, Patty Burns, will to Janice LaRue the ability to "Grow up and stop sucking her thumb." And a car so she wont have to borrow J.R.'s Ford.

I, Exa Kellison, do hereby will to Ruth Moore my ability to go with one boy at a time.

I, Betty Ann Scott, will Berline Shue a car so she won't have to walk when going to see Venton Hill.

I, Jerry Starks, will to Carol Shue my ability to get along with people.

I, Phyllis Kershner, will my pep to Mr. Taylor.

I, Louise Copenhaver, will to Dot Cloonan my present office period hoping she will be as efficient as I am.

I, Norma Clutter, will my build to Thelma Pyles so that she can be a bigger and better basketball player.

I, Eveline Rhodes, will to Betty McComb, Mary Dolan and Gloria Sharpa chain, that they will always be linked together.

I, Ray Kramer, will to Bobby Barrett and Eddie Hogsett a strong box to keep their cigarettes in during football season.

I, Wallace Cochran, will to Curtis Dever my ability to be a Bootlegger and get by with it.

I, Austin Walker, do hereby will to Coach Taylor, my luck for the best football team in the conference next season.

I, Austin Walker, do hereby will to the principal and faculty members of Hillsboro High School my appreciation for their service and advice which has helped to put me on the road to success where I stand today.

I, Grace Starks, will to Janice LaRue all the boys from Frankford.

I, Grace Starks, will to Clarice Rose some of my speed to play basketball.

I, Thelma Hill, will to the Junior Girls my ability to be a sport while playing basketball.

We, Louise Copenhaver and Phyllis Kershner, will to Janice LaRue and Carol Lee Shue our ability to be a sport in love and war.

We, Phyllis Kershner, Exa Kellison and Grace Starks, will to Dotty Cloonan, Carol Shue, and Janice LaRue the only typing eraser that we have with the hope that they get as much use out of it as we did.

Class History

Four long years ago in September 1949, there came to the great temple of learning, commonly called Hillsboro High School, thirty-six bright pupils who felt that they would be valuable additions to this school. To their disappointment this opinion was not shared by the upper classmen. During the first few days our class endured with a grin the torments and rough words of our superiors; but soon we were able to hold our heads quite as high as anyone else. We elected Ray Kramer as President, Eugene Brown as Vice President, and Charlotte Kershner as Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Jefferies was our sponsor.

When we entered school our Sophomore year, Gentellene Sharp, Macel Stanley, Leo Bonnell, and Basil Pyles weren't with us, but we were glad to see a new student, Naomi Rudd.

Our class officers for our Sophomore year were Ray Kramer, President; Phyllis Kershner, Vice President; and Jerry Starks, Secretary-Treasurer. Our sponsor was Mrs. Ida Pritchard.

After a three months vacation we entered the doors of Hillsboro High School as Juniors. We found we had lost several of our class mates. Betty Beard decided to attend school in North Carolina, and Marilyn Hamrick moved to Lewisburg. Agnes Carpenter became Mrs. Merritt Galford, Charlotte Kershner became Mrs. Fitzhugh Perry, and Sylvia McClure attended school for awhile, but quit to get married. Andrew Kinnison and Roy Dean decided to help their fathers.

Our class officers were Thelma Hill, President; Harry McCoy, Vice President; and Norma Lee Clutter, Secretary-Treasurer. Our sponsor was Mr. Jefferies whom we still have.

Our class rings arrived November 15, 1951.

Our Class play was "The Adorable Imp" and was given on April 3. Mrs. Hayes directed it.

On May 21, we gave the Junior-Senior Banquet. The Sophomore Home Economics girls served. After the banquet we went to the gymnasium for the dance.

During the summer two of our faithful members deserted the ranks; LeRoy Rose and Harry McCoy decided to serve their country so they joined the Air Force. Robert Taylor and Bernice Underwood moved to Renick and are attending school there. Naomi Rudd failed to come back.

During our Senior year Jean Pritt and Anvibelle Kramer quit school during the first semester. Vera Sue Vaughan thought it would be nicer to be Mrs. Fred Sharp, Jr., than to graduate with the Senior class.

If all members of the class pass their work, the following students will graduate as Seniors of 1953: Donald Barcroft, Eugene Brown, Louise Copenhaver, Norma Lee Clutter, Wallace Cochran, Robert Dilley, Thelma Hill, Exa Kellison, Phyllis Kershner, Harlan Kinnison, Ray Kramer, Kenneth May, Bobby Ray, Eveline Rhodes, Betty Ann Scott, Grace Starks, Jerry Starks, and Austin Walker.

Class Prophecy

Norma Lee and I just arrived back in the States, returning from our trip to the Moon. On our trip to the Moon we visited Harlen Kinnison, who at that time was a traveling salesman for "Whatchimacallit I-Haveit Company." Harlen asked us to check and see what the Seniors of 1953 were doing.

We stopped at the Greenbrier and to our surprise it was owned and operated by Eveline Rhodes. We found out from Eveline that Thelma Hill was a candidate for the first Lady President of the United States. She was running on the "I Think I Can" ticket.

We drove to Hillsboro the next day. There we found Ray Kramer who was still electioneering for the defeated candidate of 1952. He just doesn't know when to give up.

Betty Ann Scott invited us in for tea. Betty told us that Phyllis Kershner was competing for the title of "World's Best Cheerleader", and Grace Starks had donated a hospital for Hillsboro when she found a gold mine. Also, that Robert Dilley had married Exa Kellison and they had a department store and hotel in Marlinton. Robert and Exa were well on their way to making their third million.

We ventured to Beard; there we learned that Louise Copenhaver had finally captured Kenneth May and that night they were to be married.

At the Hillsboro Hospital we found Austin Walker, the greatest brain surgeon of the World. From Austin we learned that Bobby Ray was a professor at W. V. U.

Outside on the street we heard a circus parade; we ran to watch it. The two clowns leading the parade were very familiar. We looked at them again, and instantly we recognized them as being Eugene Brown and Jerry Starks. We always knew that they would amount to something some day.

We decided to look in at the new space ships. "Honest Donald" the Space Ship Dealer, was none other than Donald Barcroft. Donald told us to go and see Wallace Cochran.

We went to see Wallace and here we found that Wallace was the friendly mortician of Hillsboro. Wallace told us that he would be "the last friend to ever let us down."

Norma Lee and I, after seeing or hearing about all of our old chums, got back in our space ship and sailed off into the wild blue yonder.
